FROM THE MAILBOX

A reminder that comments from WBLRA members, in good standing, are welcome in publications in this column. To date, no one has made use of this feature. We simply ask that topics be limited to items of general interest for the betterment of WBLRA members and/or environs. Announcements, inquiries, or thank yous will not be accepted, but it is an opportunity for you to make your views known on matters pertaining to the well-being and operation of the association. Inclusion is the decision of the staff and space limitations may require editing. The Editor welcomes comments at any time at:

COMMITTEES FOR 2003-2004 BEING FORMED:

Committee sign up sheets are now available for the following committees to be appointed for 2003-2004 year.

CampgroundsGolf Outing*Future Planning*Special Events*Flowers*Activities*Fix it up*Environmental Protection*By-Laws

If you are not going to be in the club house to sign up just call to add your name (989) 588-2853 or email manager@whitebirch.org. We would like all names by August 16, 2003. Appointments will be made at that time. You must be a "member in good standing" to serve on a committee.

EDITOR'S IDLE THOUGHTS

I had to fill space so here are some things that popped into my mind:

The difference between a husband and a lover is usually night and day.

Wall Street today seems equally divided between bulls, bears, and bum steers.

What Adam started atom might end.

Stoff's Law - A child will not spit on a dirty floor.

Stewart's Law of Retroaction - It is easier to get forgiveness than permission.

Gold's Law - If the shoe fits, its ugly.

Oliver's Law of Locations - No matter where you go, there you are.

Glyme's Formula for Success - The secret of success is sincerity, once you can fake that you've got it made.

Women are more into closing shades and blinds than men, who rarely, if ever, even think about those things.

I lead Trivial pursuit players in saying, "I knew that!" when I missed a simple question. And I always know the answers to someone else's questions. You too?

Parting shot - Remember never to hold a grudge- they shed terribly.
