TITLE	DATE
Camping in White Birch Campground	August 13, 2011
POLICY X	CATEGORY Member / Guest
PROCEDURE X	ATTACHMENT no WBLRA #014
APPROVED BY Jerena Stephens	POLICY PAGES 2

Policy:

1. All campers in the campground must be registered to camp.
2. A camping registration form must be completed for each campsite in use at all times.
3. Registration forms are available at the Clubhouse. Registration forms must be completed and campsite fees paid PRIOR to setting up camp. The registration forms are two part: the white/front copy will be kept in the Clubhouse; the yellow/back copy will be given to the camper to place on the post at the campsite as a receipt and to verify registration.
4. In order to use the campground, the lot owner must be a member "in good standing".
5. All campground reservations must be made by the lot owner/member. The lot owner/member may make reservation(s) for guests/non-members to use the campground; however, guests/non-members who try to reserve a campsite on their own will be turned away.
6. Only ONE camper and ONE tent is allowed on any one camping site. If an additional camping unit or tent is placed on said space, then an additional campground fee will be applied.
7. Reservations are handled on a first come/first serve basis. Reservations made prior to your anticipated arrival date are recommended. Please call (989)588-2853 during business hours (Monday through Friday 8:00 A.M. to 4:00 P.M.) to make your advance reservation.
8. A minimum of one-half of the total camping fee is required at the time the reservation is made. The remaining balance must be paid at the Clubhouse.
9. Campground or safety personnel are unable to collect camping fees, accept reservations or assign camping sites. All monies and reservations are handled exclusively through the Clubhouse.
10. There are no time limitations on members using the campground. Guest campers have a maximum of 14 consecutive days staying in the campground with a minimum of 15 days between visits.

11. There is no refund on monies paid for camping fees or reservation deposits.
12. ATV's not owned by a lot owner/brought in by a guest are prohibited access to all roads and trails within WBLRA per the ATV Rules & Regulations.
13. All campers must comply with all regulations set forth in the Covenants and Restrictions of WBLRA.
14. The following campground fees are in effect from Memorial Day weekend through October 31, 2011:

FEE SCHEDULE
